Dear Sirs;

I am much obliged to you for your clear letter of the 1st. The collection to which I refer is that of my father after whom I was named. There are perhaps some 15000 pieces of which about 3000 are medals. In addition there is a very extensive numismatic library and a collection of paper money. My father left a manuscript catalogue of almost all the coins, but of nothing else.

As I personally have no authority I shall submit your letter to the Executors and Justices of the estate. It is quite uncertain what action they will take and very possibly the collection will not come on the market at all. Should that be the case I shall try to inform you.

Very Truly Yours

Spencer Appleton.

THE POSTAL TELEGRAPH-CABLE COMPANY,

(INCORPORATED)

transmits and delivers the within message subject to the following TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the regular rate is charged in addition. It is agreed between the sender of the message written on the face hereof and the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, that said Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any UNREPEATED message, beyond the amount received for sending the same; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any REPEATED message beyond fifty times the sum received for sending the same, unless specially insured, nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages. And this Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward any message over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.

Correctness in the transmission of messages to any point on the lines of the Company can be INSURED by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon, at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz: one per cent. for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent. for any greater distance.

No responsibility regarding messages attaches to this Company until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of this Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

Messages will be delivered free within the established free delivery limits of the terminal office. For delivery at a greater distance a special charge will be made to cover the cost of such delivery.

This Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the Company for transmission.

This is an UNREPEATED Message and is delivered by request of the sender under the conditions named above. Errors can be guarded against only by repeating a message back to the sending station for comparison.

No employee of this Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

V. P. and Gen'l Manager.

Dear Sirs;

Please excuse a slight delay in answering yours of the 9th.

It is extremely improbable that my father's collection of coins will ever come into the auction room.
The work I have had done
and am having done,

is designed to give the Trustees an accurate idea of the value of the collection. They have not bound themselves in any way to any dealer or prospective buyer. When they feel free to make their next moves it is possible they will consider offers for the collection as a whole. However, if I were you I should not worry about it, as there is a good chance of the collection stopping near home. If it does not do so I imagine you will hear of it at the time. Many thanks for your letter.

Very Truly Yours

Wm. Sumner Appleton.

If you should happen to be passing through Boston I should be very glad to make your acquaintance, but do not make the trip otherwise. I am glad to have saved you the trouble and time of a trip which could not at the time have been worth your while.

Yours
W. S. Appleton
